14 JULY 2018 | 8AM LA . 11 AM NYC. 4PM LON . 5PM PAR

How can exploring our relationship to sex and money create a gateway to our deepest intelligence and highest wisdom?

How can we use our energetic capabilities to find mastery and equanimity in areas of our lives which are often chaotic and messy?

What if our darkest emotions could be held and explored in a space of non-judgement, empathy and unconditional love?

By becoming a better version of ourselves, each of us can fulfil his/her highest purpose in helping to shape the course of humanity.

Energy, Sex and Money, an intensive 3 hour online workshop/webinar will be a multidimensional, interactive and transformative online experience offering the following:

KNOWLEDGE AND THEORY

Together we will discuss new methods and knowledge on how to explore our relationship to our deepest shadows with new eyes, allowing for it to be transmuted.

A SHARING CIRCLE

We will open a safe space for sharing experiences, fears and questions on these topics, allowing each participants rawest emotions to be met with love and empathy and for everyone to gain insight on issues which are personal to them.
